Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1968 of Hyndman High School, inasmuch as we are disposed to a doubtful mental equilibrium, do hereby establish this to be our Last Will and Testament. With the publication of this document, we hereby declare all previous wills, codiciles, and other testamentary documents null and void.

Being fully aware of the unavoidable destruction of the "Class of 68" as a functioning academic body on the day of May 29, 1968, and further realizing the impending dissapation of its various components before the restless sweep of time, we herein lay a plan for the division of those things which, by choice or necessity, we leave behind us:

To our parents, we cede our undying love and a large measure of gratitude for those years of guidance.

To the faculty, we bequeath our heartfelt thanks and great respect for the priceless gift which they have given us.

Lastly, we, the Senior Class of 1968, pass on to the Senior Class of 1969 those things designated beneath: CLARENCE HENGST wills to Leland Cummins his formula for height. GARRY and LARRY HARDEN leave to Gary and Roger Burkett the right to "shoot the fat" at Red Grace's. BILL RYAN gives permission to Rolland Stair to copy his "mod" originals. DONALD KREIGLINE donates his mumbles to Leroy Lowery. SHERRY KENNELL bestows upon Lura Lotz her femininity and charm. JOHN CLITES presents his collection of jokes to Lynn Largent with the understanding that he must carry on as class jester. BILL SHAFFER leaves Jim Williams with the ability of spotting girls in classrooms while cruising down the hall. SHARON SNYDER'S friend-winning personality is equally apportioned to Nan and Beth Logue. JANET LEHMAN orders Karen Evans to preserve her contradictory attitudes. Dennis Gray and Clay Logsdon inherit all rights and privileges to the boiler room from RONALD SMEAK. RITA COOK tosses off her sense of humor on Betty Clites. ANTHONY MONNETT relinquishes his craze for cars to Ron Shaffer. GWEN MOORE gives her "giggles" to Donna Sager. MELANIE COOK blesses Mary Jo Conner with a taste for clothes. LARRY ELDER leaves his position of first trumpet to Steven Wisler on the condition that he doesn't quit band first. FRED TOPPER wills his book of wrestling secrets to Ken Dermer, expecting him to continue chalking up wins. ROBERT MILLER and WILLIAM RITCHEY place their confident attitudes on the basketball court in the custody of Stephen Sides. SYDNEY EMERICK slips his secrets of how to make teachers go nuts to Denny Lowery, hoping he will send a few to the mental hospital. KENNY CLITES bestows his shovel to Gary Cook figuring he'll be able to dig his way out of trouble. CAROLYN EMERICK gives her contact lenses to Cathy Waugerman provided the former can find them somewhere in the corner of her eye. ELLEN EMERICK relinquishes her reserved seats to everything and anything to Carolyn Gibbner. JOHN HAROLD gives up his alarm clock to Perry Ritchey hoping he will get to school on time. John Hutzell is the recipient of a pair of much-used crutches, courtesy of JEFF HOLLER. BARBARA LEYDIG bequeaths her mini-skirts to Bev Lafferty while praying that they don't get any shorter. PATRICIA ARNOLD cedes her graceful steps to Edna Mae Day. Hoping that someone else will be able to get the tests run off in time, LETTIE STAHLMAN places her ditto room keys in the possession of Suzanne Johnston. MARY BRUCK supplies Linda Kennell with patience to be used when waiting for a letter from a certain someone in the service. JOHN DENNISON bequeaths to Zane Shaffer the ability to be quiet, knowing how much the latter needs it. NEDRA ROBOSSON surrenders her seat at the Drugstore to Florence Kinton. ANNE PORTER burdens Paula McVicker with the headaches of having a faculty member for a father. HAROLD PICK passes on his Musician's Union card to Freeman Diest, with hopes that the latter has better luck in finding work. CARL LOGSDON appoints Lane Ahlburn to replace him in the cafeteria, trusting that he can scrape the plates off faster. GLENN SHAFFER releases his typewriter into the care of Danny Kennell, feeling certain that Danny will find some use for it. Bill Kreigline takes up the position held by RAY RANKER as Mr. Mellett's "protege," provided he can keep him under control at wrestling meets. RICHARD BINGMAN honors Jim Shroyer with his neatness. Rich Lehr inherits DONALD BRYANT'S sophisticated walk on the condition that he will keep his shoulders from touching the floor. RON GIBBNER issues his fire extinguisher to John Shaffer, along with a warning that "61" Chevy's burn easily. MARY ROBINSON bestows upon Elva Jean Growden her attitude that there's no place like home. WILMA LEA BRICK imposes upon Barbara Meyers her ability to become flustered in a calm situation. LINDA STAIR gives her little black book to Barbara Emerick, insisting that she keep it filled with one guy. BEV KENNELL bestows her matrimonial plans to Connie Willison. To know everything but keep it to oneself is MARY SHIREY'S gift to Rhonda Kline and Donna Keel. LARRY RINGLER stockpiles John Miller with his devilish ways. LINDA JORDAN leaves to Vicki Horner her neat and personable ways with the assurance that she will never be in need of friends. Roger Krout is entrusted with RICHARD MOSKEY'S ability to concentrate on a book in homeroom. David Reed inherits JIM LOGSDON'S knack for moving down the hall's at his own speed but still get to class on time. Finally, SHIRLEY SHROYER places her inconspicous conspicuousness in the care of Connie Albright.

In testimony thereof, we subscribe our seal to this document, the Ninth day of February, nineteen-hundred and sixty-eight.

The Senior Class of 1968

'68 Class History

With only a few months remaining of our Senior year, we stop to reminisce our past four years at Hyndman High School with treasured memories, sad hearts and hopes of a promising future.

We now take you back to our Freshman year. We entered as giggling, supposedly innocent, well-informed greenhorns. Our bankroll totaled all the way to $215.94, which of course was big money to us then. Mr. Mellott and Mrs. Willis had the "honors" of being our sponsors, with the feeling that they had done all that was possible for such a class.

Next came our "first big money-making year, or so we thought! As Sophomores, we were considered "wise fools", we really lived up to our title when the candy bills came due. With rising costs, our treasury dropped. With only $836.85, we ended our sophomore year with our sponsors, Mr. Bistline and Mr. Porter, giving a sign of relief.

With a year planned with a schedule of full activities, we entered our Junior year. With November bringing our first dinner, our bank account took a move upward. Then came our play, "If a Body Meet a Body", with the help and patience of Mrs. Harclerode, turned out to be a great, overwhelming success. We then revved up our motors for our last dinner, which was an all-take-out dinner. This was a bigger success than the first. With a jingle and a jangle we then came around selling key chains and charm bracelets. Suddenly, before we knew it, Prom time had arrived. With six-shooter's in hand, spurs on our boots, we enthusiastically presented "The Golden West" to the class of 1967. With our sponsors, Mr. Mellott and Mrs. Logsdon standing behind us all the way, we clambered through what we thought was a never-ending year.

With Mrs. Kipp and Coach McVicker as our "ruling heads" we tumbled into our last, most precious year of all, "our senior year." We started afresh with going for ads for our most prized possession, our yearbook. We then flew to the top by presenting "Stars In Their Eyes," with Hyndman High's very own director, Mrs. Harclerods.

With only three months remaining we anxiously await the coming events, the senior trip to New York City, the Prom in May, Baccalaureate Service, and finally, the end to our many fun-filled years, "Graduation Day". We now leave our adolescent years behind as we face the future as mature adults.
